

Get Involved

Conversations about our history and race can be difficult, but one of the blessings of the connection is that we can navigate these difficult waters together. Einstein once said, "Learn from the past. Live for today." This February, Diversity, Missions, and Justice will host a month-long book study of Our Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm. The study will be held on Tuesdays in February at 7:00 p.m. via Zoom; each week will include a panel discussion and Q&A. Pastors Page

The Mission of Evangel Heights United Methodist Church: To equip, nurture, and reach out in order to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Evangel Heights Family and Friends, "I thank my God in all my remembrance of you..." (Philippians 1:6 NRSV)

New Sermon Series. A new sermon series, Come Home will begin Sunday, February 4th. The four week series will focus on Who this God is who is calling us (regardless of the number of years that we have been walking with God) to come home.

Congregation and Friends Fellowship. On February 11th, following the worship service, we will gather in the Fellowship Hall for a time of fellowship, fun and a potluck meal with one another and our friends from our neighborhood, including the Walnut Grove Community. You will receive more information from the Nurture Committee and team.

Listen and Learn. I want to extend an invitation to you, Evangel Heights Family and Friends, to participate in the on-line four week Lenten book study, Our Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm.

The discussions may be uncomfortable. Discomfort is the price that we all must pay to discover new information. The study will focus on The United Methodist Church. The online study will take place during the month of February. More information and registration are found in the Beacon.

Prayer Concerns, Birthdays, etc. In an effort to communicate information about our members and friends, the Church Council is in the process of determining how we can share information with you, EHUMC, without infringing on your privacy and the privacy of others. We will keep you informed. In the meantime, if you have questions about specific individuals who are listed with only the first name given, contact Rob, our Office Manager. He will provide you with the information that you need.

Discipleship Formation. How is it with your soul? Are you taking care of your mental, physical, spiritual, and emotional self? Are there resources that you need to assist you with taking care of yourself? If so, let's talk.

Homelessness. A New Need. Donations of lady's and men's undergarments are needed for the guests at Broadway Christian Parish. All sizes are welcome. A bin will be supplied by Kathy Siders in the narthex.

Thank you. Evangel Heights Family and Friends. Your prayer support is appreciated. I am thankful for the opportunity to serve as your pastor. Thank you, too, for your commitment to Jesus Christ which is demonstrated by your involvement at Evangel Heights United Methodist Church through the sharing of your gifts and time within and beyond the four walls of our congregation.

As we move forward, let us pray, "Lord, interrupt us to be fearlessly obedient to your plans; challenge us to act on those opportunities."

Let us continue to trust God for the impossible! "Jesus looked at them and said, 'With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.'" (Matthew 19:26)

Remember. Our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (Ephesians 6:12, NRSV)

"You cannot dismantle what you cannot see. You cannot challenge what you do not understand."

-Layla F. Saad

Joy in the Journey,
Pastor Michelle

Dismantling Racism

"You cannot dismantle what you cannot see. You cannot challenge what you do not understand."

- Layla F. Saad

What do the following have to do with the topic of racism?

- "I don't see color. I am color blind when it comes to race."

- The doctrine of the spirituality of the church.
