

Sermon Questions for Reflection for Sunday, April 5, 2026, and the Week of April 5, 2026

Sermon Title: Glory!

Sermon Scripture: John 20:1-18

Before you read the Scripture for Sunday, April 5, 2026, and the week of April 5, 2026, I invite you to do the following:

- Find a quiet place.
- Remove any distractions from your presence, including your cellphone.
- Light a candle. The lit candle designates a sacred place where Jesus Christ is present.
- Invite the Holy Spirit to help you to understand the Scripture readings and the sermon (John 14:26).

Questions for Reflection:

1. Where have you witnessed the presence of Jesus Christ in your life? In our congregation's life? Where have you witnessed the presence of Jesus Christ in our community? In the world?
2. Have you ever witnessed the resurrection power of Jesus Christ?
3. If you have witnessed the resurrection power of Jesus Christ, how has it impacted your life? How has it impacted the life of our congregation?

(We will address these and other questions during Sunday's sermon.)

4. How is Jesus inviting you to be "ALL – IN" for Him? Who is Jesus prompting you to talk to about him during the week of April 5, 2026?
5. As you continue to read and reflect on the assigned scripture, consider following the Lectio Divina practice outlined below. Lectio Divina means "Divine Reading" or "Sacred Reading." Record your insights and reflect on your answers.

Lectio Divina or "Holy Reading"

Introduction

- Lectio Divina is a methodical practice for experiencing scripture as a "Living Word," helping us connect with and deepen our awareness of God's Presence.
- It involves three stages to help us listen to the Spirit's prompts:
  - What did you notice?
  - What did you hear?
  - So what?

- The regular practice of Lectio Divina dates back to the 6th century, during the time of St. Benedict.
- Listen with “an ear of the heart,” as a divine conversation with the “Living Word,” remaining open to God’s guidance.

Lectio Divina Practice Steps

- Read John 20:1-18.
- Spend time in silence.
- Ask yourself: What did you notice?

- Read John 20:1-18.
- Spend time in silence.
- Ask yourself: What did you hear?

- Read John 20:1-18 once more.
- Spend time in silence.
- Reflect on the questions: So what? What is the Spirit calling you to do now?
